Pfizer Appears to have Corrupted the Entire Western World

Europe awakens from a nightmare to the ground truth

Christine Anderson: A member of the European Parliament. She represents the Alternative for Germany (AfD), which is labelled as a “populist political party” in Germany. AfD is known for its opposition to the European Union, as well as the open border/immigration to Germany policies which the EU mandates. As she does not believe in open borders, Christine Anderson is labelled with such terms as “far-right,” and “anti-Islamic.” Near as I can tell, these are just more propaganda talking points by Wiki and their ilk.

The short clip above is important because Christine Anderson is getting at an important point, which must be researched. There is evidence that Pfizer and Pfizer’s CEO Albert Bourla have corrupted government leaders worldwide. That this corruption is deep and wide.

> The people have been lied to. It was a gigantic lie. And on this lie, everything that governments, especially in the Western democracies did to infringe on people's rights, to take away their freedom, to lock them in their homes, imposing curfews, all of this was based on that gigantic lie.
> Ursula von der Leyen, EU Commission president is now under a lot of pressure, and rightly so. The people have a right to know what went on in these contracts with her exchange of SMS with CEO Pfizer, Bourla. The people need to know who they can hold responsible and accountable for whatever may have gone on behind the scenes. Things are changing now, their house of cards is tumbling down, and it is doing so rightfully.
> And you know what? One more thing though, I am sick and tired of being called a COV-idiot. And I'd much rather be a COV-idiot than being a GOV-idiot, because that's what all these people that blindly trusted their governments turned out to be. And I will say it again, it was never, never, ever about public health, it was never about breaking any waves, it was always about breaking people. But, and that's the good news, they failed. It didn't work. And that I am very proud of, and I'm proud of the people that I am so honored to be allowed to represent. And I will continue to do just that. Thank you very much.

Ursula Gertrud von der Leyen is president of the European Commission since 2019. The European Commission is the leadership of the European Union. It operates as a cabinet government, with 27 members of the Commission headed by the President (now Ursula Gertrud von der Leyen). It includes an administrative body of about 32,000 European civil servants.

Leyen had been secretly communicating with the CEO of Pfizer about the purchase of COVID-19 vaccines via text messages. In early 2022, a journalist requested for copies of these texts and the European commission rejected the request. This has opened the door for widespread speculation of malfeasance and corruption.

European Commission president Ursula von der Leyen said in July that she is no longer in possession of text messages. The EU's ombusman has determined that this is malfeasance.

Christine Anderson writes on the European Union: **

> The EU is elitist, aloof and distant from the citizens. With its tentacles, it takes a stranglehold on the sovereignty of the European nations and dictates to the citizens in every detail how they have to behave.
> I want an honest and free Europe of free people and not a construct of political elites. I consider putting a stop to these false elites here in Brussels and Strasbourg to be the most urgent task in my political work.

Christine Anderson is the very definition of Badass German (https://margaretannaalice.substack.com/p/are-you-a-good-german-or-a-badass) 😎

I first encountered her when she gave Justin Trudeau a walloping for his behavior during the Canadian trucker protests, calling him “a disgrace to any democracy” (https://margaretannaalice.substack.com/p/profiles-in-courage-the-canadian). I later nominated her for Bravest Politician in the World (https://margaretannaalice.substack.com/i/68654621/bravest-politician-in-the-world) in my “Letter to the German Bundestag,” which includes three speeches by her I encourage everyone to watch.

She is fearlessly taking on the globalists, pharmaceutical companies, and tyranny the world over, so it’s no wonder she’s being smeared as a far-right extremist.

RussCR5187 Nov 8 · edited Nov 8

I agree that the tide is turning. But I also think there may be great urgency in quickening the tide. In my opinion, the highest-level perpetrators in all of this are fanatically in the grip of an ideology, totally committed to achieving a global technocratic totalitarian state. They will not simply "lay down their arms". I believe we need to disarm and prosecute them BEFORE they have a chance to release a more deadly virus (or perhaps even worse, a few "tactical nuclear weapons"). To the extent they are both sociopathic and desperate, unleashing more evil on the world in that way would not be beyond them.

♡ 26 Reply Collapse

Laura Garcia Nov 8 · edited Nov 8

You may be onto something.

And the “real enemy”….the global techno fascists are on both sides of the aisle.

This is about far more than COVID and the vaccine. That narrative is an example (symptom if you will) of what we can expect if the cancer is not excised. I worry that it will simply be treated and go into remission to roar back worse than before.

When we reach the bottom….they are ready with their “social impact markets” and solutions which literally enslave us and partner with technology to begin execution their plan to “engineer our evolution.” Scary thought, but there it is.

And the thing to remember, as they make their millions to further invest in their technology and machines, data can be manipulated. We have seen just how easily that is the case with the COVID narrative, and most are none the wiser.

So when they talk about public/private partnerships and the glory and perfection that will be afforded us in our lives (you will own nothing and be happy) remember they are talking about a system whereby they claim that “data” and articulate intelligence will be used for decision making. Kind of funny given the past two to three years that ANYONE would think a system that is supposed to be data driven with these guys at the helm would be anything other than a tyranny. For a while, it may look pretty and be made to appeal with bells and whistles, shiny new innovations that are all about “economy and efficiency”—-But let’s not forget that those who claim to be trying to rescue us and cure disease, poverty, etc. with their dara are the first to say the Earth cannot sustain a growing population that abuses its resources. Again, rules for thee but not for me is their mantra. And they have been busy for some time consolidating their power and garnering more and more control over the Earth’s resources. They want everything to have a QR code, measurable and quantifiable as to value based on THEIR SYSTEM they are working to out in place.

Don’t forget that in the days ahead….no matter what becomes more f the issues around the COVID chronicles.

It's foretold, and it sure looks like first the Great Restrainer needs to be removed, and then things will go real quickly, likely as you describe. After the big restraint-removal, a strong charismatic takes the stage and gets a 7 year peace treaty done in the middle east. If you're around when that happens, look to Israel as they will see it clearly.

Be wary of a time when the globalists seem under wraps finally and we get all giddy with peace and safety! It comes quickly then.

It all underscores the opportunity de-jour to turn to the One who can remain in unity with us now, during the transition to the next life, and forever afterwards.

Dr. Malone is commended, with gratitude, for getting to the point. And Pfizer HAS corrupted the entire WORLD, period. When the Vaccine Poison volcano blows, there will be no survivors, and the Pfizer CEO and his entire board of directors will be swinging at the end of ropes after a proper trial for the worldwide genocide they perpetuated. Too bad. Some of the Krauts made it to South America after their WWII inferno blew up in their faces. There will be no such refuge for these debased scoundrels (included the CDC/WHO criminals and Fauci). Their only hope is that their own injected poison (assuming that they actually took the same shots we did) will kill them before the floor-drop on the gallows abruptly opens to reveal the chasm below.

I understand the point you are trying to make. However, too many of the leaders will hesitate before executing justice and will talk themselves into negotiating a truce….why?

Too many in the masses are not sufficiently outraged. And why?

Because they are I'll informed and the msm is bought and paid for.

How and when does that change?

How do you get Americans, many who are untouched (so far) by the lies to actually look at the issues if they have an attention span of a gnat and are on screens consuming the tech giants propaganda and feeling warm fuzzy righteousness feelings?

We are stuck in a loop.

The bigger agenda (beyond COVID—-COVID was a mechanism for putting into play the demolition of western democracies) is the one we should now begin to look towards.

What is that agenda? Well, when we are poor enough, sick enough, hungry enough….they will offer the solutions (with their wealth and technology) with strings attached. It is what the predatory philanthropists have perfected as an art. Our politicians have long been prostituting our interests to these fin/tech elite—/-how else do you think it is that the WEF has infiltrated governments, cabinets, bureaucracies in our nations?

Don't be sure that Trump is not just playing his part.

The real threat is not COVID.

The real threat is the re-working of the monetary system which has been ongoing and is underway, without much opposition, as we have all been consumed by the COVID narrative.

Do not misunderstand me….the COVID narrative needs to be debunked and viewed for what it is….a crime against humanity.

But that alone will not be enough to stop what awaits us if people do not fully understand why they want smart cities, digital IDs, digital money, digitized education.

The 4th Industrial Revolution is real and what it will mean for the masses is not a pretty picture.

Oh they will sell us on how technology will solve all the worlds problems and save Mother Earth….but look at what and who is promoting this viewpoint. Then tell me how exactly their “promises” manifest. And that is before we get to the “Rules for thee, but not for me.”

Jimmy Dore vs Noam Chomsky

Amnesty, i'm going with Jim

28 min ago

Watching Jimmy Dore this AM. He played a clip of Noam Chomsky discussing his thoughts on vax'd and non vax'd.

Mr. Chomsky uses the traffic light anecdote as a comparative to personal autonomy. "we stop at traffic lights'' we as a group protect each other by this agreement. 'Vax' is the same we protect each by this agreement.

Mr. Chomsky feels the unvax'd are sub human and should starve to death as if abandoned orphans refusing to participate in the workhouse ideology. A disaster of their own making so to speak.

I have in my mind right now long paragraphs of so many things this once great thinker should be ashamed of regarding this issue. I won't print them, instead I will respect your own intellect to make your own conclusions.

To say that the pandemic is about a virus is to say landing on the moon is about the rocket. The number of components involved in the pandemic can not be measured. Each with a different agenda all leading to a similar outcome of course.

How disappointing to see the great thinker, the great leader with such a simplistic view point.

Imagine a society where a stand up comedian out thinks the modern day philosopher. Jimmy start writing some books man we need your guidance now more than ever.

I worry about this. That even those leading the charge for accountability will end up “settling” the affairs so the country can move towards healing, rather than pursuing justice.

Sadly, the lies have effected individuals severely and traumatically with little relief or remedy. It is not a situation that can be negotiated away.

It requires justice for real healing to happen.

Dr. Malone….are you willing to forgive and forget what they did to you if that se elected start pursuing accountability but don’t not deliver on justice in the form of stripping certain individuals of their power, $$$$$ unlawfully gained, and jail time?

Are Americans going to accept “Epstein Justice”…..the immediate actors might suffer, but so fear the game may continue. Too many on both sides of the aisle are literally “invested” in preserving our dysfunctional institutions for the wrong reasons—-bought and paid for.

The stakeholder capitalism propaganda is evident everywhere you look and listen. It is not as benevolent or ideal as they want many to believe as they claim to be building a gentler, more inclusive, and kinder society.

Let’s all remember that the same ones who are promoting that BS (and it is very well organized, orchestrated, and planned—has been in motion for at least a decade) are the same ones who just had no problem killing people, having people die alone (many who needn’t have died), and who are hell bent on using us and our children as pin cushions so they can perfect their science and the machines.

Agreed. If we're not careful, labels will be the death of us. Such labelling underlies tribal bickering, which is exactly the distraction ruling elites hope for while quietly slipping in the next steps of authoritarian control. If you "belong" to a labelled group then you must voice, and never back down from, the entire set of arguments associated with that group. Otherwise, you won't be a card-carrying member. Productive conversation suffers. Never underestimate your enemy....

These elites expected dissent. Their plans included dividing the people so we would be more interested in arguing "politics" among ourselves than a focus on what's being done to us.

They want the Chinese culture and they want a world population of less than 1B.

Their only fear is that we outnumber them. We could overrun their location, home, office, in a minute and nothing they can do would prevent that.

But keep us divided and fighting each other will work if we let it and don't wake up to see their plan and understand and don't under-estimate them.

They control everything...the media, the message, the governments, the big hedge funds. Everyone has already taken the oath...whatever it takes to accomplish the plan. Their plans are out in the open because they can't hide them...too many spies and whistleblowers to do that so keep it out in the open...say, "of course, we told you that.." and be ruthless...they think...now that we've started this is our last and only chance to execute the plan. They are making their last stand. Understand that.

And they're going to make it rough because they can't get the support of the people unless it's so bad that most of us say "help us please" and open the door. Just like the vaccines...they're counting on mass formation psychosis. They're going to starve us, cut our power, freeze us out like rats, crash our financial system so we don't have money.

People are waking up to this drug induced health crisis, and the fact that politicians and the media are caught up in the conspiracy to keep people enslaved to drugs which harm your health and don't help your health at all. Why does the media and why do politicians keep supporting this drug health crisis?

Well it is money, 35% of media income is from drug company buying ads. We saw this problem in the past with tobacco and now we are seeing it with drugs. Politicians get huge donations of cash from drug companies, Biden got 16 million in 2020. the drug companies control the politicians. And the FDA, CDC, and NIH are captured by the drug companies. These so-called protectors of public health are in bed with the drug companies and collaborate 100% with the wants of of the drug industry, even overlooking safety testing of drugs. And when safety testing is done it is slipshod and has lots of fudging. Then the approving bodies completely overlook any possible unsafe factors.

There is no way we can let government health officials with strong conflicts of interest have the right to approve drugs. Fauci and other government officials get royalties from drugs and vaccines, and they have the authority to approve these drugs? This whole system needs restructuring.

This was all corrupt from the beginning - even before the beginning as the official timeline of the start of the virus spread is preposterously false. As I point out in my article today, the entire madness could have been averted if only one thing had happened - IF officials would have tested archived Red Cross blood for antibodies in the weeks before they ordered the lockdowns. This evidence - that was finally published many months later - would have conclusively proven that millions of Americans had been infected, probably by late November 2019. It's the "dog that didn't bark" - all the events that should have happened, but didn't happen. In this case, it's one simple population extrapolation (and testing of archived blood supplies) that was never performed.

Thank you for a very interesting article and the additional perspective on the course of events. Certainly it adds to how we want to view our experiences here in the States.

There is evidence that Pfizer and Pfizer's CEO Albert Bourla have corrupted government leaders worldwide.

While there is doubt this is also true in the States, it does appear we have experienced massive corruption and self-serving from many quarters. Those who 'wouldn't let any crisis go to waste' wasted no time leaping into action. I suspect the corruption goes well beyond Pfizer with promoters on both sides.

As Anderson has noted, putting a stop to the construct delivering the corruption needs to be a foremost among the list of priorities.

Very timely and much appreciated!

Socialist Communism is in many ways identical to toxic virus organisms the continually morph into new variations that infect the global populations - with no effective vaccine to stop the spread that has re occurred for the past 200 years - as the historical record clearly shows for those willing to become educated to the factual reality of this never ending scourge.

"social-justice" is based upon envy - built into the DNA of every human being. A minority of individuals are able to cope with envious thoughts and not let "it" get the best of them. The majority, however, cannot and are easily converted into howling mobs by political charlatans of ALL political "parties" that utilize envy and hate (by the mob) to demand "justice" via laws to plunder and redistribute from the so-called "haves" to the so-called "have-nots".

In order to "legally" carry out evermore "redistribution" of the money & property of so-called "rich" - which MOSTLY effects the MIDDLE CLASS - the "BOURGEOIS" that Karl Marx HATED viscerally, can only be effected by the implementation of HORDES of Un-elected, Unaccountable (lifetime) BUREAUCRAT class - such as the 32,000 EU bureaucrats that fill the great halls of the indolent in the EU (and the UN).

History has shown the great 'masses' (a term coined by Karl Marx), have never become educated about history, politics nor economics - but rather (generationally) succumb to out and out propaganda the enrage them, control them, and pacify them in the name of the "common good".

The story was first reported back in Jan 2022 by TFIGlobal. But Von Der Leyden triggered it all during a NYT Interview in April 2021 when she referred to “her personal diplomacy” role dealing with Pfizer. TFIGlobal story went on to include a UK story revealing Pfizer “Playing Dirty Games” in regard to AstraZeneca’s vaccine by bribing experts to propagate falsehoods during a Pfizer sponsored Canadian “vaccine education symposium” regarding its efficacy, that it could cause cancer, and was unsafe for immunocompromised people. Lastly, the vaccine’s technology could INCORPORATE ITSELF INTO THE RECIPIENT’S GENETIC CODE AND CAUSE TUMORS.

TFIGlobal goes on to state that Pfizer is making a 3,000% profit by charging $30.00 for each jab it makes for a $1.00. Pfizer disputes this because of its trials, development, and distribution costs. On top of that, the EU has contracts for an additional 1.8 billion jabs for years 2022 thru 2023.

Final point AfD is a good example of where we’re heading. The Guardian Reported that seven months ago a Judge ruled AfD was a “threat to Democracy” because of their “extremist” views. An appeal was turned down. This means they can be legally infiltrated,and spied on by Domestic Intelligence agencies.

Are you an American, Dr. Malone? I'm really wondering, right now. Or are you a European? Is saving the E.U. more important to you than the United States Constitution, our Bill of Rights, and the United States of America? Or, maybe you are "Globalist" for whom there is no real difference between nations??

"We," (not the People) but the Criminal Cabal controlling our government wrote the new language for the WHO International Pandemic Treaty which would STRIP all Nations on Earth that sign it of their Constitution and Legal Rights! Including us.

"We" developed the bioweapon that is Sars-cov-2, and "We" developed the toxic Nano Lipid Particles and pseudouridine mRNA that is torturing people all over Earth, flooding women's ovaries and quite possibly Genetically Modifying their children's DNA!

(Again, not We the People, but "WE" the criminals and sociopaths with control over our Universities and Governmental Agencies, including CIA, FDA, NIH, NIAID, NSA, DARPA, etc., as well as the Medical Boards that destroyed doctors, and hospitals which put their patients on Covid Death Trains of forced Remdesivir and forced Ventilators when it was known this treatment was LETHAL to Covid patients! That "WE.")

"We" are sadly the heart of the monster that just destroyed 3.3 million American Businesses,

Katherine: If Europe is destroyed so are we. What is happening there is a warning to us here. The EU elite were deeply involved in the planning and creation of all the nefarious activities you describe. They helped orchestrate quite a bit of what happened in Ukraine as did US with biological research. The UK rolled out the shots first if you recall.

Politicians here need to see, be emboldened and inspired by the brave pushback from politicians and government officials around the globe.

I find George Webb Investigative Journalist on various platforms to be most helpful in understanding how Italy, Germany, Brussels, France and UK were all deeply involved- their governments, banks, and corporations. These are incredibly deep, dark and twisted rabbit holes. The corruption and plotting has gone on for years with many old, rich, royal and deeply interconnected families and organizations. The EU is part of it all. And that might be a big part of why an EU ever came to exist at all.

I was stunned at the size of the staff bureaucracy for the EU cabinet.

Build it centralized and big and it will control and dominate.

It is now fairly widely understood that it was the US and the UK in concert that blew up the Nord Stream 1 and 2 gas pipelines going to Germany and Europe.

Deconstruct the EU and Europe will be able to find its way again.

Meanwhile German chemical maker BASF must leave its operations to move to China, given the forced deindustrialization of that country by the EU. All this destruction in the EU blows back on us, our economy and well-being.

Ms. Herr,

My people fled Europe because of the wickedness and corruption that ruled that part of the world, as far back as the 1600's. They and their children survived on this continent without government, building homes and farms and businesses and welcomed the next waves of refugees from Europe's wars, starvations and persecutions, and all of these people's decendents, my ancestors, fought the British, got shot, blown up, and bled all over what became American ground in order to create one Nation on Earth where Human Freedom and Liberty can actually survive. This is my ancestry, and we know exactly how corrupt Europe was and is. We lived and died in this place, to create something very different from that old elitist system which ground the average man and woman to death under their boots.

My family died to ensure LIFE, LIBERTY, and The PURSUIT of HAPPINESS, as well as the Bill of Rights, including Freedom of Speech, in a new Nation on Earth.

Saving this Nation MUST be all actual American's first priority. To think that Europe today with it's WHO, WEF, GAVI, and E.U., plus all the peoples who completely accept zero actual Freedom in their personal lives, (trust me I know lots of Europeans!) is any American's #1 priority, is absolutely revolting, despite any interlocking multinational entities, economic ties, or even simple human compassion.

We have fought 2 of Europe's World Wars, both of my parents served, and afterwards have made the wicked mistake of sending our faithful men and women

It isn't either or. Wanting Europe to be restored to sovereignty and some form of freedom and the EU's corruption to be curtailed is not unpatriotic to the US. I am listening to all manner of geopolitical commentaries all over the world talking about their histories and experiences. It is instructive as so many also look to the US to be better than it has been.

Look into www.globalwalkout.com. We need to approach a warp speed turnabout. Or the "speed of science" whatsoever that may be.
