True the Vote's Catherine Engelbrecht and Gregg Philips sat down with Jim Hoft and Patty McMurry to discuss the upcoming "2000" Mules reveal. Jim & Patty showed some NEW video evidence of voter fraud of their own!

https://youtu.be/aiuQCPxj_38

They talked about who "paid" for the ballot harvesters and mentioned an 'international' NGO that was founded by Saul Alinsky in the 1940s and once again mentioned 'old Chicago money' behind it. So, it wasn't just Zuckerberg. Obama's mentors?

I think she might be referring to this group:

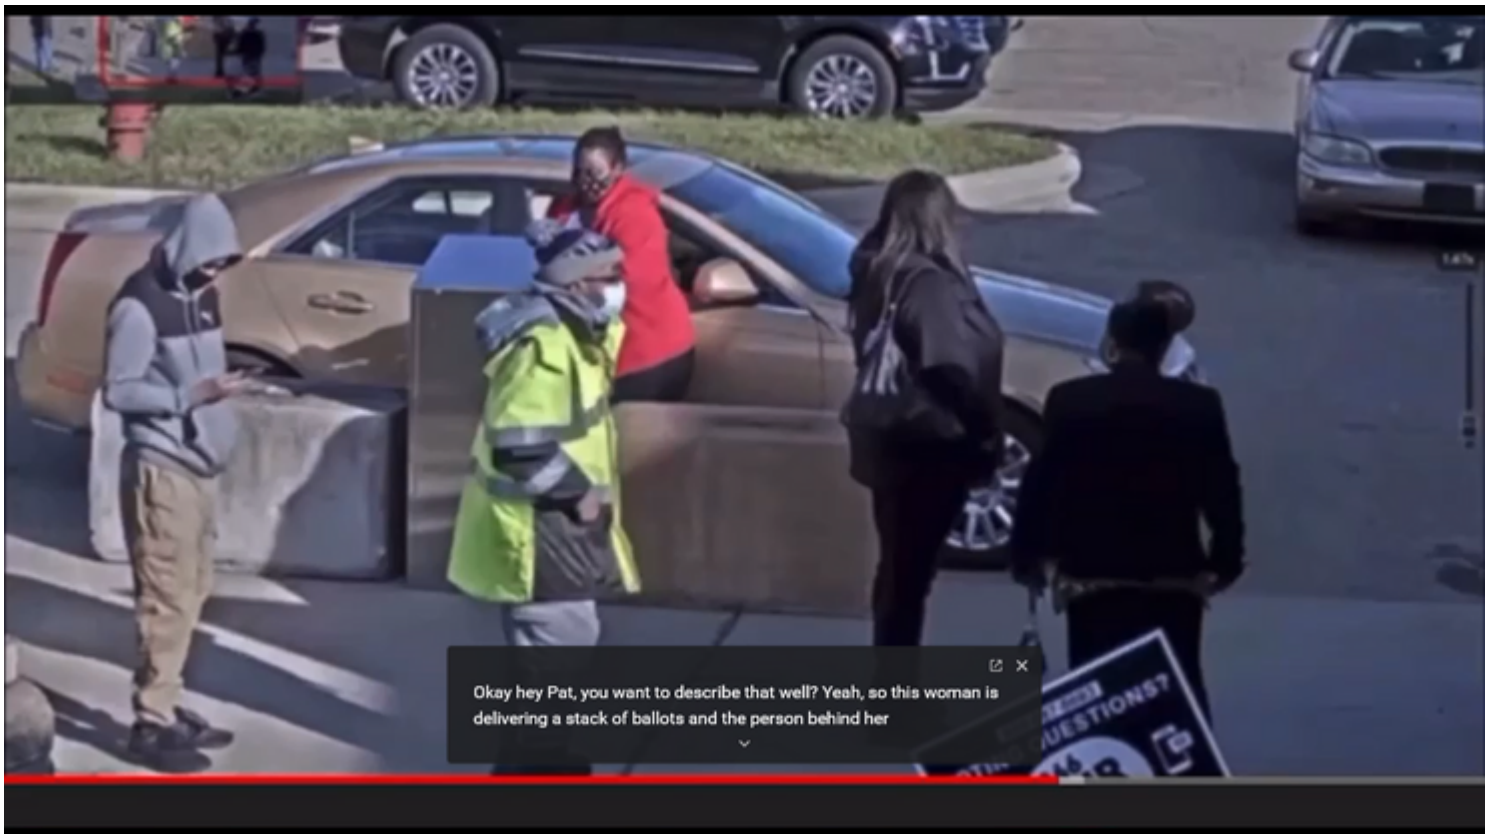
https://en.m.wikipedia.org/wiki/Industrial_Areas_Foundation

She also says that Stacey Abrams' "Souls to the Polls" gave money to churches in Atlanta who collected ballots! They also go into more detail about what Governor Kemp did to them in Georgia to block the investigation into voter fraud.

Hoft also showed the video from the Detroit counting center of the van that showed up in the middle of the night to drop off ballots. They are going to do a ping search on it to see where it came from, and where it went after dropping the ballots off. Cool!

Toward the end of the interview, Patty shared some brand new Detroit, Michigan ballot trafficking clips. In this video, a women heads to the drop box for a ballot dump when she appears to realize that the envelopes are unsigned. So she returns to the car where she's filmed with a pen in her hand going through each ballot.

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=aiuQCPxj_38



In this video, a US Postal worker visited the same drop box 4 times with stacks of ballots! So, as we suspected, the US Post Office was in on the steal!

On her final visit, with a big stack of ballots, she came in a different vehicle!

Kari Lake, Trump's choice for Arizona Governor, joined Clay Travis and Buck Sexton.

Lake described her race as “the most important election in the entire country. If we don’t get a strong governor in office here who’s gonna take this border seriously, then we don’t have a country ’cause we don’t have a border.”

“People don’t even recognize Joe Biden as legitimate. And when I’m governor, I’m not gonna take orders from an illegitimate president who is hell-bent on destroying America, and I’m not gonna let him take Arizona down with him."

“But we can’t move on with all of the issues we are facing until we deal with the fact that our elections are corrupt. And that’s why tomorrow I’m gonna be filing an junction, emergency injunction to stop the use of these machines, these voting machines, these electronic voting machines where there’s so many problems.”

Clay asked Kari whether she’s confident the 2022 election will be reliable in the state of Arizona.

“Well, I’m not a hundred percent confident otherwise I wouldn’t be involved in filing injunctions and doing everything I can. However, because we in Arizona know what happened... we know where they cheated, we know how they cheated with these outrageous dumps of mail-in ballots and these, frankly, unconstitutional drop boxes, we’re gonna be extra vigilant."

"We’re gonna get trained to go to the polls and be poll watchers and poll workers. But I believe we’re gonna have to win by a mile in order to eke out a one-inch win, and that’s why it was so obvious the cheating with President Trump, because he won in such a landslide."

The Truth Social upgrade went well. It's coming together!

DEVIN NUNES: “We have this great new data center. It’s gonna allow us over the next coming days to get all of the people who have been waiting patiently in line, to get on the platform.”

People are sick of being lied to and gaslit by “elites” who hate us. There is a new great awakening happening and it’s a glorious thing to witness.

The battle for Twitter continues. Team Musk is now offering $46.5 billion, which is a $3.5 billion increase over his previous offer.

President Trump did an interview with Piers Morgan - an old Apprentice contestant. Piers & Murdoch's new network - Talk TV - deceptively edited the promotional clips to make it look like Trump stormed out. He did not and provided the entire video to prove Piers was lying.

Instead, according to the recording, which was provided by Trump's spokesman, the two men thanked each other and laughed at the conclusion of the interview for Talk TV, a subsidiary of Rupert Murdoch's News Corp - which also owns Fox & the Wall Street Journal & the New York Post.

WASHINGTON – An audio recording obtained by NBC News appears to show that former President Donald Trump's highly publicized interview with Piers Morgan did not end with Trump storming off the set, as edited promotional video clips suggest.

Instead, according to the recording, which was provided by Trump's spokesman, the two men thanked each other and laughed at the conclusion of the interview for Talk TV, a subsidiary of Rupert Murdoch's News Corp.

Talk TV, which is set to debut next week, teased the interview — billed as "the most explosive interview of the year" — in a video summary that is dramatized with cinematic music and portrays Trump as being angry about the content of questions Morgan asked. The video and the alleged walkout were reported in an article by the New York Post, which is also owned by News Corp.

PRESIDENT TRUMP: "Piers Morgan, like the rest of the Fake News Media, attempted to unlawfully and deceptively edit his long and tedious interview with me. He wanted to make it look like I walked out on the interview when my time limit of 20 minutes went over by an hour. The good news is that the interview was taped by us as a means of keeping him honest. The interview was actually very strong on the 2020 Election Fraud, with me calling him "a fool" if he truly believed those results.

The evidence is massive and irrefutable (check out Truth the Vote and the Dinesh D'Souza documentary, which will all be coming out soon). For those who want to make Piers look bad, compare his video promo and how it was doctored to the real thing. Hopefully they will now be doing some big changes to their final product. It just shows, however, what I have to deal with in the Fake News Media. He went out of his way to deceptively edit an interview and got caught. That is a big story, isn't it?"

Statement by Donald J. Trump, 45th President of the United States of America

Piers Morgan, like the rest of the Fake News Media, attempted to unlawfully and deceptively edit his long and tedious interview with me. He wanted to make it look like I walked out on the interview when my time limit of 20 minutes went over by an hour. The good news is that the interview was taped by us as a means of keeping him honest. The interview was actually very strong on the 2020 Election Fraud, with me calling him "a fool" if he truly believed those results. The evidence is massive and irrefutable (check out Truth the Vote and the Dinesh D'Souza documentary, which will all be coming out soon). For those who want to make Piers look bad, compare his video promo and how it was doctored to the real thing. Hopefully they will now be doing some big changes to their final product. It just shows, however, what I have to deal with in the Fake News Media. He went out of his way to deceptively edit an interview and got caught. That is a big story, isn't it?

Here is the full audio provided by Trump's team to Breitbart News of the end of Trump's interview with Piers Morgan, which proves that Morgan and his team deceptively edited the interview to make it appear as though it was a contentious ending when it was not.

I think it might all be made for TV since just a week ago Piers said he missed Trump. We all do! Even the Democrats!

BTW - the Globalist snakes ARE going after our food supply. They want to starve us into submission. Food processing plants, pantries, and distribution centers in America are just "randomly" catching fire and exploding within the space of a few weeks. Remember when COVID shut down America's meat plants in 2020? Same playbook.

Yes, she does!

Last night, I was honored to meet Royce White - who is running to be the Republican challenger for the US House against Ilhan Omar in MY district, CD5, in Minnesota. Royce is even more impressive in person than on TV. He gets it.

I believe that Royce White has what it takes to challenge and defeat Ilhan Omar - which we BADLY need to restore Minneapolis to its former greatness. Ilhan Omar is NOT well liked in Minneapolis - even by her own constituents! Yet, somehow, the establishment endorsed someone other than Royce - who appears to be a nice woman - but who has NO chance of beating Omar! Typical.

Minnesota establishment Republicans, who have been infiltrated and funded by the open borders Koch Libertarians for years, help the Democrats win every time! Enough! Vote for Royce White! Vote to win!
