THREAD – Nuremberg 2: What a Real Inquiry into the Response to COVID Would Look Like

Given the magnitude of the harm that’s been done, the public deserves to know exactly who knew and did what, when, and why in the days leading up to the lockdowns of spring 2020 and beyond. 1/

Though it may not be politically feasible, ideally an inquiry into the response to COVID would take the form of an international tribunal. Below are just some of the many disturbing questions to which any leader who claims to represent the public ought to demand answers. 2/

1. Why did the CDC suddenly adopt “measures to increase social distance” as official policy in 2004, contrary to all the epidemiological guidance it had developed throughout the 20th century? 3/

The REAL Story of the Birth of ‘Social Distancing’ — the Western Term for Lockdown (封锁)

That 'social distancing' arose from a school science project appears to be an elaborate cover story for the fact the concept was lifted directly from China's lockdown measures during SARS in 2003.
