Please hold the vaccines makers responsible because it was never a real vaccine instead it was an experimental drug with serious side effects. Everyday, I'm grateful that I refused twice on receiving the toxic jab. I did contract Covid and was sick for 4 days and didn't require a hospital or dr. I have taken vitamin d, complex b and zinc for 15 yrs and believe it helped me.

My 26 year old niece got the vax. She got a blood clot in her neck. My cousin's 28 year old daughter got the vax, and had a heart attack. My daughter has two friends that got the vax. One is 26, and she is now seeing a cardiologist. The other is 28. She now has multiple sclerosis after getting the vax. I hope all these people that pushed this poison are exposed for the liars they are. Safe and Effective is one of the biggest lies ever told.

Almost 60 yrs after the assassination of JFK, we finally received confirmation that what we believed to be true all along about the CIA involvement in Kennedy's death was, in fact, a reality. Our gov't lied to us for decades. In fact, the term "conspiracy theory" entered into our lexicon for the first time to describe those who disagreed with the gov't version of events. History repeats itself 60 yrs later, and we still have the same language being applied to describe those of us who refuse the gov't "safe & effective" vaccine. Historic data tells us our gov't has lied to us repeatedly over the years, which is why we must perform our due diligence, use discernment, refuse to be led like sheep to a slaughter by evil people to whom lying is as natural as breathing. The evil ones will one day stand before God & have to give an accounting for their horrific deeds. I'm praying that day is within sight.

Amen. You are absolutely right about everyone standing before God and giving an account for everything that we have ever done. We will also have to give an account for every word ever uttered from our mouths and I'm sure those evil people will be absolutely shocked because, 1..they will actually be held accountable for what they have ever said and done, they just won't/can't understand that and they will not be able to lie.

Most of the Fox hosts were not in favor of mandating the jab. Many did promote it.

The biggest long-term issue is as all of this unfolds, the remaining credibility of the government will be destroyed. This not a good thing. We need a credible government, but right now we don't.

The government is supposed to report actual data & statistics good, bad, and ugly. The desire to hold power is why they lie. The border is secure, the jab is safe, & we created over a million jobs where only 10000 were created are fancies designed to keep the current political party in power and sway elections and public opinion. It works until the lies don't match reality and the blind followers wake up.

We are a Banana Republic now. Not long until it blows up.

The worst part about all of this is the Hippocratic Oath that the doctors take when getting their licenses. "To do no harm" meaning that if they know better they wouldn't do it. Well surprise...many of them did knowingly do harm and profited it by it.

The horror will stop when Jesus comes back.. I know that is not popular right now . Even some Christians have given up on that. Did you ever hear or read about such evil in all of history? All is a fake reality. It's because time is short and the devil knows it. The Bible says if God doesn't do something no one will be left alive. Evil wants this planet.

Most Have Failed Us

Lots of doctors like Dr's Tenpenny, Bhakdi, Ryan Cole, Rashid Buttar , Shankara Chetty, Mirkovitz and many others are saying that the jabbed will ALL die of the spike protein complications and those that took multiple jabs and boosters will suffer and be maimed and die sooner. The jabs create and cause unstoppable spike protein production and there is no known way to halt it – which eventually leads the body to start attacking itself and cause clots, strokes , heart attacks and death. Even for those that only got a single jab – assuming it wasn't a placebo saline shot.

Love him or hate him, there has only been a very few outspoken critics of the jabs like Louis Farrakhan of the Nation of Islam who has instructed its members to absolutely not get jabbed. Whereas all the other Religious Leaders have led their followers to slaughter... thanks Francis !

Last night at Christmas gathering, 60 yr old brother in law. Last year prostate PSA 1.6 Post vaxx, 6.7. Positive post biopsy cancer.

Been reading about fenbendazole, a pet de wormer, again right. Looks looks many people are having raging success in removing tumors. I have just read in the past 2 weeks on how parasites and cancer are related.

I just completed an RSO Rick Simpson Oil treatment for prostate issues, 62 yrs old., 6.3 PSA. Gained relief with flow, testing, Post treatment MRI is good, PSA testing this week.

There are options out there. Check out the fenbendazole, it looks very promising.

Many Outcomes Like This

OK, sad tragic outcome, we get it. But the unvaxxed have been telling people for almost 2 years to wait and not to get the jabs. It takes decades to test vaccines.... and yet you trusted big pharma even though all the test animals died and health problems and deaths were reported within the first few months. why?

After being labeled a conspiracy nut, I stopped telling friends, family and co workers and just kept quiet and minded my own business. Some had strokes, heart attacks and few have died after getting the boosters – these were people previously healthy in their mid to late 50's. During the job mandate I was fired and lost my job because I wouldn't comply. Guess what – I found another job and life goes on. It's not easy, I was lucky to find work even though it was much lower pay, but I managed and most importantly I remain healthy.

My last influenza flu shot was 4 seasons ago. I will never again take a flu shot and definitely none of these gene therapy jabs. My heart aches for all those young pregnant mothers who were told the jabs were safe and now according to some sources over 80% have miscarried.

For those that elected to get the jab to keep their jobs, attend college or travel and are now maimed and injured for life, my regrets to your family who are now burdened to care for you, but what are you expecting from those that remained unvaxxed and have warned you for the last 2 years?

You were lucky to have only been called a conspiracy nut.

I was screamed at to "stay away from me". Or, "I don't know what you are talking about. You know you had a vaccine as a child you are fine, you're crazy". I had a brother lie to me for 3 years about "being busy" or "too much traffic that time of holiday", or why he wouldn't visit and why my family couldn't come visit, living one hour away. Of course he had covid 2x and is 40+ lbs overweight, too! When I called him on it that he's a liar, it's because after almost 3 years you won't give it up about my vax status and it DOESN'T HELP, IT LOWERS IMMUNITY. I have been blocked. No more brother.

NO ONE HAS APOLOGIZED. Even a nurse acquaintance asked me how did I know not to get it, after 3 summers being annoyed at me, NEVER APOLOGIZED.

I really don't think any apology for their disgusting, disrespectful and childish behavior will come. They are getting very scared again that they are ticking time bomb.

"It's a scientific mystery" says the "doctor".

Wow, blockbuster stupidity. Or evil intent. Med school is probably tough enough, requiring enough intelligence that I think I can dispense with the former. That leaves the latter.

Lots of evil floating around lately. Has it always been so prevalent? In my 6 decades of life, I never have thought so.

America First, Last & Always

It took me decades to learn there can be stupid doctors. The thing about getting through med school is not necessarily intelligence but the ability to study rigorously and work a lot. The learning part is supposed to work in concert with that. Compassion and empathy are also supposed to be part of the equation and formerly unquestioned as going into the profession, willing to put in the hours was sufficient to show dedication.

However, as newer generations came of age, doctoring became something, like so much else, a commodity. Something to impress and garner a high wage. Somewhere along the way, like so many things, the status outweighed the mission; That being the helping of others. Admittedly there are a great many "technically adroit" doctors but not nearly as many who actually give a damn.

You are correct, America. My primary is giving up her practice. She was in partnership with another who is retiring. I went to see her to say goodbye and to ask, politely, what was the reason. She said she did not want to join a hospital group, be a concierge doctor for rich people, couldn't be in a practice as the sole doctor, and just wanted to help people. She also said that medicine has become a business with profit and loss over helping the sick. When health care providers are on Wall Street and have to answer to their stockholders, it's time to leave. At some point, she added, she may join Doctors Without Borders. Yea would be nice, but won't see any litigation. With the jabs now approved as childhood vaccine for infants and toddlers, big Pharma has gained total immunity against prosecution backed by the US government. Still under the blanket of Emergency Use Authorization, getting jabbed is deemed voluntary. No one was tied down with a gun to their head. Instead every participant willingly rolled up their sleeves for the first, second, and some even multiple booster shots. Maddening !

If you do a search on the HPV vaccine and you will find all kinds of teenagers lives ruined from it.

They were promoted as a safe and effective breakthrough (sound familiar?) for cancer.

Now a report came out that says they arent even effective (sound familiar?)

They swept it under the rug and hid it, just like they are doing with this vaccine and all vaccines.

Reportedly, half of women in their late twenties, are unable to conceive or bring a pregnancy to term, and its due to the HPV vaccine.

Remember, before Covid, all the stories that'd be in the news, usually locally or regionally, of some poor high school football player who died on the field 'of a previously unknown congenital heart defect”?

Yeah, you can be money that is was one of the required vaccines, before football practice, that actually killed those kids.

Vaccines, I think, are straight from Satan, and the end game of all of it, all the now centuries of people having to suffer and/or fight their damnable governments for having to deal with 'mandates'; THE END GAME OF IT, ALL ALONG, WAS TO FOSTER AN END TIMES GOAL OF USING VACCINES TO FORCE PEOPLE TO COMPLY, TO MARK THEM EVENTUALLY, AS A PART OF A ONE WORLD SATANIC GOVERNMENT.
