If ever there was a battle worth fighting, it’s the one over digital currency. Digital currency has become the most powerful tool on the planet, and here’s why: it offers a neat and tidy way for a few powerful tyrants to control the masses with just the flip of a switch. Say something controversial about a trans person on social media? Your social credit score could plummet, leading your bank to drop you, and suddenly you can’t buy groceries or pay bills.

Think that’s far-fetched? Think again. They’re already admitting that digital currency will be wielded as a weapon for mass control, and they’re not shy about letting you know. As a matter of fact, Christine Lagarde, the current president of the European Central Bank (ECB) revealed that digital currency will absolutely be used for control. And this very disturbing revelation happened all thanks to a prank.

Forkast:

European Central Bank (ECB) President Christine Lagarde recently fell victim to a prank call in which she unwittingly revealed that Europe’s central bank digital currency (CBDC), the digital euro, will have a “limited amount of control.” In the video prank posted online last month, a prankster impersonating Ukraine President Volodymyr Zelensky had a conversation with Lagarde.

Here’s some “fast facts” on the prank call and digital currency push from Forkast:

- “We are considering whether for very small amounts, anything that is around €300 [or] €400, we could have a mechanism where there is zero control, but that could be dangerous,” said Lagarde, recalling a previous terrorist attack in France that was believed to be financed by rechargeable and anonymous credit cards.
- Late last month, the European Union introduced new cash payment limits of €7,000 (US$7,645). The cap is lower in some member states of the EU, such as €1,000 in France and Italy. The region also imposes restrictions on anonymous crypto asset transfers over €1,000.
- Lagarde also said in the video that the decision on the digital euro is expected to be made this coming October.
- The prank call and its resulting revelations come amid a larger discussion about CBDCs and the role they may play in the future of global finance. While some see CBDCs as a way to modernize and streamline financial systems, others have expressed concern about the potential for government overreach and loss of privacy.
- Robert F. Kennedy Jr., who recently filed to run for U.S. president in 2024 as a Democrat, shared his concerns on CBDCs via Twitter on Wednesday.
- “A CBDC tied to digital ID and social credit score will allow the government to freeze your assets or limit your spending to approved vendors if you fail to comply with arbitrary diktats, i.e. vaccine mandates.” Kennedy’s verified account tweeted.
- “The Fed will initially limit its CBDC to interbank transactions but we should not be blind to the obvious danger that this is the first step in banning and seizing Bitcoin as the Treasury did with gold 90 years ago today in 1933.”
- At least 114 countries are currently exploring CBDC developments, according to the Atlantic Council.

Watch what the shameless Lagarde had to say:

Wall Street Silver

ECB President Christine Lagarde

CBDC Will Be Used For Control

Cash transactions above 1,000 Euros already banned. Jail or fines if you are caught.

With CBDC Euro, there will be controls. Maybe transactions 300-400 Euros won't be controlled. Anything above will be.

And we're not the only ones warning about the horrors of digital currency. Recently, Revolver published a powerful piece on Joe Rogan's reaction to digital currency, which was very simple: "That would be game over." He's right.

If there's one thing we've learned, it's that giving the left an inch means they'll take 100 thousand miles. It always begins innocently, with promises of how "easy" and "convenient" something will be — perhaps even impressing you with sleek, high-tech flair. But once they gain a foothold, you and everything you say and do become beholden to a group of elites who can shut down your entire livelihood with just a flip of a switch. The digital currency battle is a hill worth dying on — it's that big of a potential game-changer.

That will eliminate gun and/or ammo purchases. Just a couple of many things the powers that be have control over. No thanks. People will start to barter and trade and create their own off the grid communities.

Once they have gained full control over larger transactions, they will strictly control your use of fuel, medical care, electricity, and ability to travel beyond your neighborhood, with or without public transportation... Public transportation available only in your neighborhood, with permits required to travel beyond your neighborhood... Literally every action monitored through spending and other surveillance already in use...

Yes, Republicans are the opposite of Democrats.

Dems want silencing of opposition. Censorship of opposing opinions, war, illegal immigration, word and thought police, gender study of children, sex reassignment at will, most immoral unnatural things in life, force EV on society, fund crazy ideas, gun control, weaponizing the DOJ, Military, FBI Etc...the list goes on and on...

Republican Politicians are not as devious as Democrat politicians, but most are RINO's and part of the establishment Democrats have created over the past 50 years.

The Democrats I grew up with in the 60's are now considered right wing because we will not accept the new Democrat Woke agenda.

If I were an Atheist, I would be a Democrat, believing that a better world is only possible by the efforts of man. Being a Christian, I am a Republican, believing that everything belongs to God and is given to us to promote His glory. Soon we will find out who's right.

It would be better said that the Democrats are forging the way controlled by the deep state down a path or road, and both parties are working in perfect harmony to make guardrails, so that path leads in only one direction... Republican leadership play the controlled opposition, feigning opposition, all the while tearing up the road behind so there is no going back on the radical gains made by the Democratic leadership... Both of whom are working for the exact same foreign interests, and who's agenda is abhorrent to the constituents of BOTH parties, and the USA as you and I envision it...

Exactly, every system we use should to be "off the grid", especially our money. CBDC will completely wreck freedom. Americans can, and should, use money which governments and banks do not control. Just start slowly.

Currently, that is gold, silver, and cryptocurrencies.

- Gold and silver are great as money, but not practical for payments over long distance. They're still useful to replace cash transactions, and keep privacy, but mainly local use.
- Almost all cryptocurrencies, for example Bitcoin, Ethereum, just pick one, have a serious problem. Their blockchains can show world how much you have, what you've been buying, and to whom you've been donating.

However, there are Privacy Cryptocurrencies which take care of this open-blockchain privacy problem, by keeping their own blockchains invisible (true crypto), so your accounts and your business remain your business. Privacy Cryptocurrencies DO NOT reveal your balances, or purchases, or to whom you donate. No one can even know if a transaction occurred, except buyer and seller (so that all shall buy and sell, without the mark of the beast).

If government plans are to require us to use CBDC, then we may as well get accustomed to using Privacy cryptos. The CBDC will become much too limiting to depend upon. Plus, our money will vanish, regularly, for all sorts of nonsense, aka more government tax scams, endless.

Only 3 Privacy cryptocurrencies actually maintain privacy - Monero, Dero, and Pirate Chain.

Better get a little of each, just in case, because you are going to want extra privacy in very near future. Privacy will soon be extremely valuable, especially if you need to buy, or sell something which government doesn't want you to buy, or sell, without their beastly "mark". Also, blockchains (holding your data) should be considered eternal. They'll pick your bones for long time.

I agree... AND! what will really piss them off is that they won't be able to print their own money anymore(NO INFLATION) Let's face it... It is NEVER going to come to this. This would be the end of dc being able to print their own money. I strongly doubt that they will EVER give that up... until the eventual financial ruin.

ONE KEY STROKE TO CREATE MORE MONEY...No more worries about paying bills. They will simply remove your digital money and fund another person's digital account.

Go illegals!!! Go welfare recipients, go unemployed, go anyone who votes Democrat.....no need to collect taxes anymore, money will be free!!!

In the end...there will be financial ruin.

The entire idea of digital currencies is to have no actual cash, they'll in effect decide how much or if you can have or keep any at all. All you'll have is a gubment issued credit card. Eventually your social security card will become your only card capable of monetary transactions and will only work where they authorize it, based on your compliance to their dictates. They'll own you and every business, i.e the tyrants utopian communist state.

It is SO freaking old to me! God said this, God said that, Jesus said... It all relies on a bunch of lying scumbags. DO I believe in "God", absolutely. Do I believe that Jesus was the son of GOD? Absolutely, the same as I am - and all the rest of you wither you accept it or not yes, Jesus is the living word of God in the flesh.

Its coming, wake up.

"It also forced all people, great and small, rich and poor, free and slave, to receive a mark on their right hands or on their foreheads, 17so that they could not buy or sell unless they had the mark, which is the name of the beast or the number of its name." - Rev 13:16-17

You can't eat gold or silver & if you have gold or silver these buzzards will definitely come for anything you have to eat. When that day comes... and I am pretty damned certain it will be soon, the people "holding gold and silver" had better be invested in lead. PLENTY OF IT! we are now living through the fall of rome where semptus severus couniled his sons "... pay the troops, nothing else matters." In other words, in order to maintain power... confiscate anything of value to pay your thugs to keep you in power.

Saw that 'goldbucks' in 4 states thing. Privately issued and 100% higher than spot on buy-in. Texas is moving toward gold backed digital. Not a fan of digital, but buy low sell high could make the state rich, especially if they can get on an international exchange and keep the feds nose out of it. 'Gold standard' always ends up the gubmint wants to outlaw everyone's gold anyway..
