There have been 92 total court cases brought by Trump questioning the stolen 2020 election.

More than two-thirds were dismissed on technicalities—with lack of standing being among the most frequently cited.

Of the 30 cases decided on their merits, Trump and his allies were victorious 22 times (73%).

This completely debunks the false narrative that the courts found the 2020 election to be secure and accurate.

Here is a link with every case, the ruling, reasoning, and in-depth summaries:

Footage of COUNTED duplicated ballots from Fulton County, GA in the 2020 election.

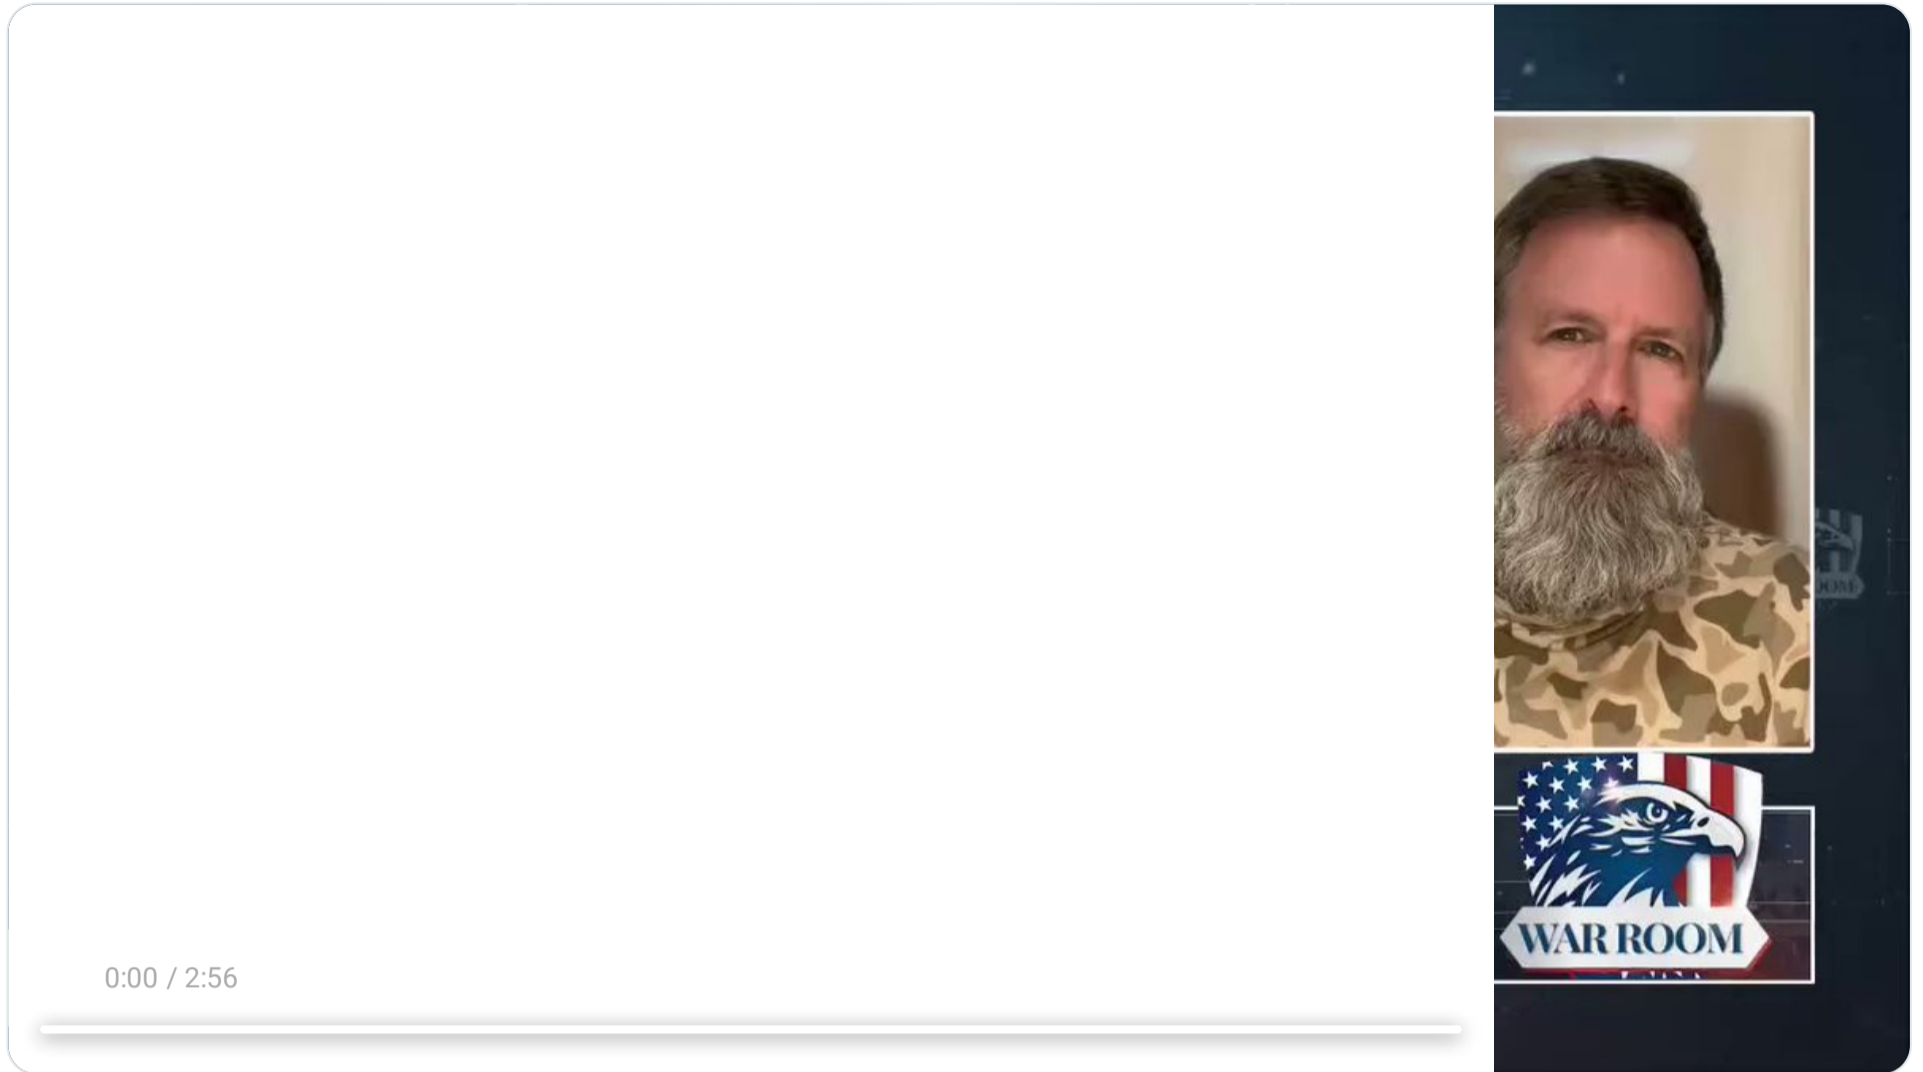

“...there actually was meaningful voter fraud in Fulton County, GA... That is not a conspiracy theory. It’s true... At least 36 batches of mail-in ballots...were double-counted in Fulton County. That's a total of more than 4,000 votes.”

The creators of 2000 Mules are ready to submit their evidence to assist Trump.

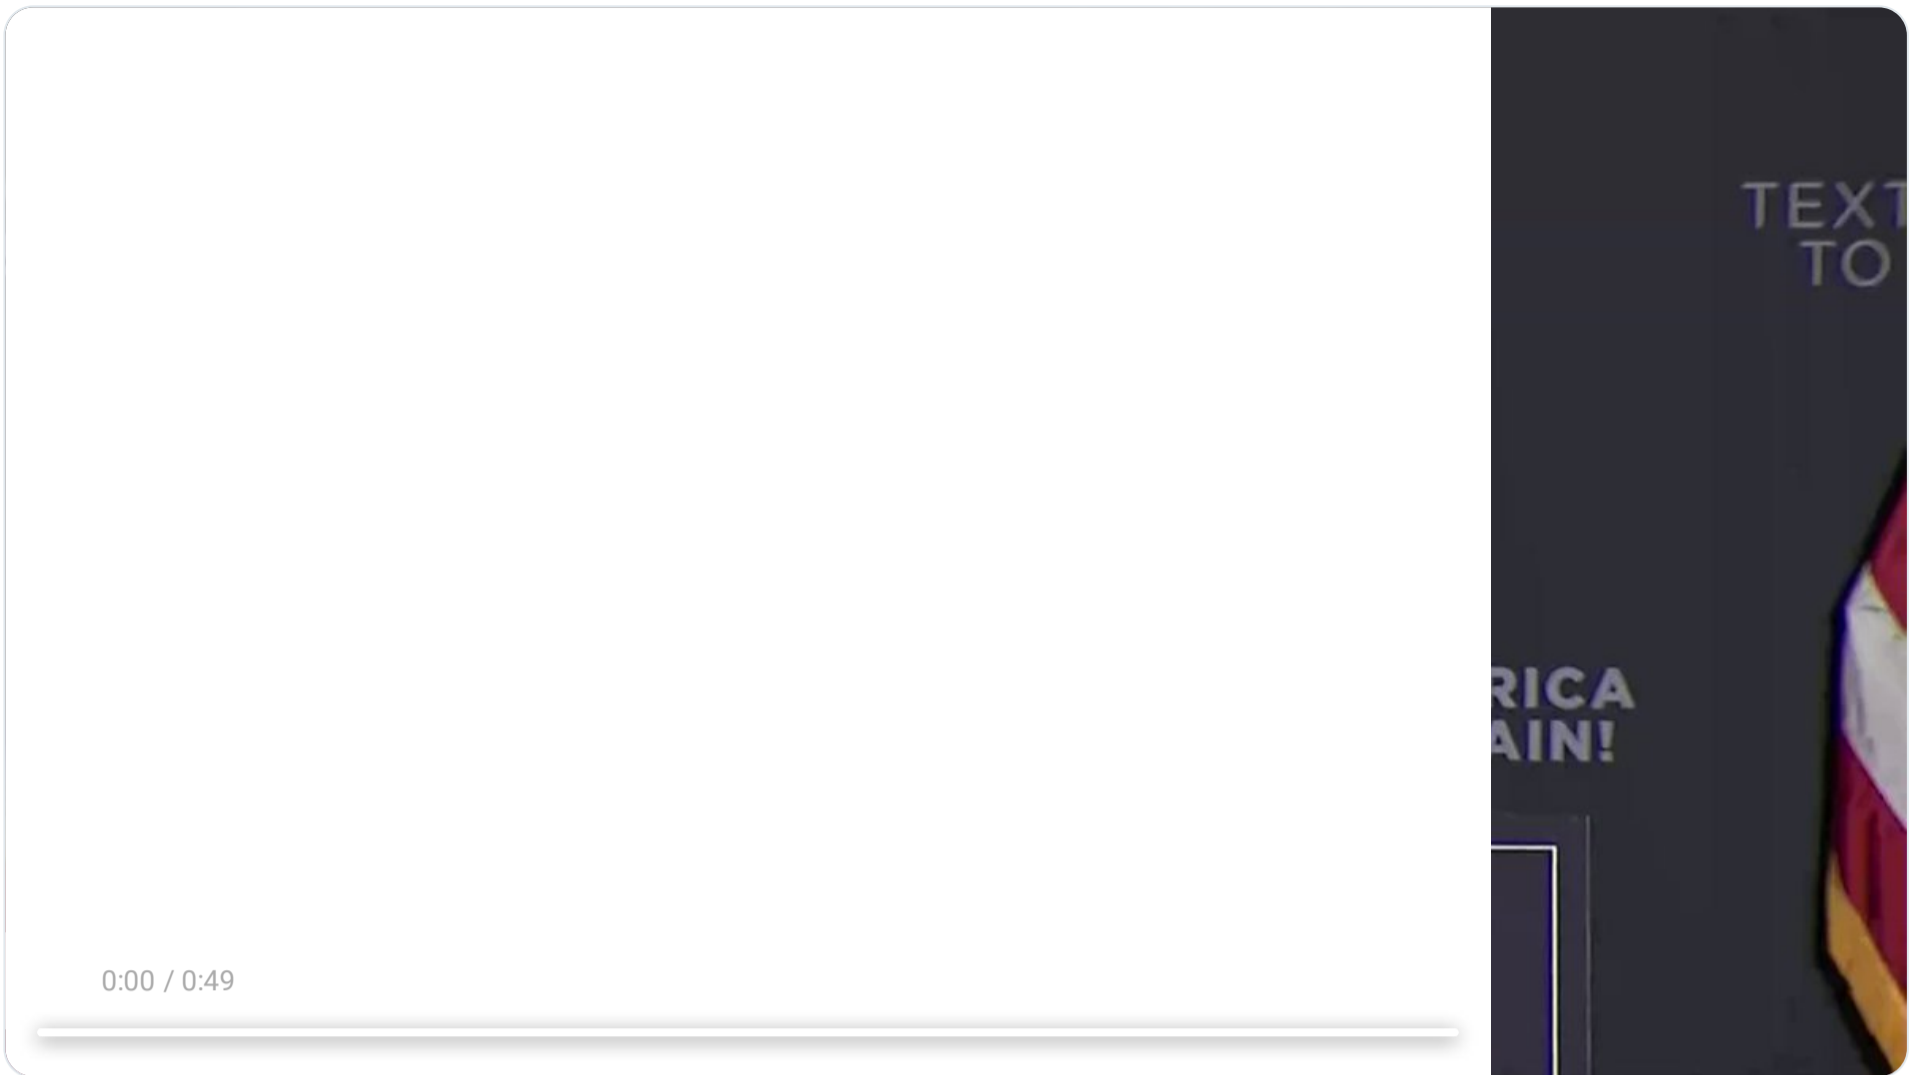

Here's a woman stuffing the ballot box in broad daylight in Gwinnett County, Georgia in the November 2020 Election. Video from 2000 Mules.

Trump claims that 2,000 Mules will be used as evidence in his upcoming criminal trial to show the election was stolen from him.

Jack Smith claims Trump “knew” his statements were false because he was previously told by authoritative figures from each state.

But based on all the evidence above, isn't it fair to assume Trump really did believe his statements were TRUE and HONEST? <https://t.co/Bbcl9YPRVk>

The latest Trump indictment is pretty heavy—no question about that. Jack Smith was able to point to multiple times that Trump “knew” something was untrue, yet continued to repeat it.

It is important to note, however, that the prosecution is assuming Trump knew these... Show more

In 2018, VP Kamala Harris demanded:

- The end of electronic voting
- Paper ballots
- Secure elections
- Voter ID

Is Kamala an election-denying right-wing extremist?

Or maybe these are simple, common sense improvements to our broken voting system.

Let's talk about the infamous Raffensperger call:

At the time, Trump was claiming they were at least 50,000 fraudulent votes in the state.

Why would Fani Willis (@FaniforDA) post this conspiracy theory on November 4th?

The mysterious burst pipe was already FIXED, and it was confirmed NO BALLOTS had been affected (see next post)

Does Fani Willis promote “lawfare” against political opponents?

h/t @P8TRIOTALIDS

This article was published on 11/3/20 at 11:25pm and clearly shows GA Deputy Secretary of State Jordan Fuchs confirmed there was a 4-hour delay due to a burst pipe. It took 2 hours to fix and no ballots were affected.

Also, Fulton County Public Affairs Manager Regina Waller, announced that she sent all the ballot counters HOME at 10:30pm, not to return until 8:30am the next day...

BUT WHY do the videos show multiple ballot counters shuffling around suitcases and continuing to count ballots? (See next post)

@FaniforDA @P8TRIOTALIDS Security footage from the night of 11/3 thru 11/4 at 2am shows “suitcases” being pulled out from UNDER A TABLE by poll workers (that had already supposedly been sent home) scanning stacks of ballots, seemingly multiple times...

Is this fraud on film?

2/👉 DoD reached out directly to Capitol Police on Jan 2nd asking if they intended to request National Guard troops. Based on the (incorrect) information they had at the time, Chief of Capitol Police Steve Sund did not see a need to do so
