What do you call "Sedition"?

sedition

advocating multiparty democracy is considered sedition: incitement (to riot/rebellion), agitation, rabble-rousing, fomentation (of discontent), troublemaking.

The longest sentences handed out to those involved in the 2019-2020 Hong Kong protests in China were 16 months. Many of these people in the Washington Jan 6 protests were given sentences of many years and up to 22 years. In addition, the Hong protesters were armed with hammers, rocks and petrol bombs.

If we ask Google: Typical Sentence for Criminal Trespass?

"A fine of not more than $100; or. Imprisonment of not more than 30 days; or. Both fine and imprisonment."

Seems like these sentences are excessive - some might refer to that as "cruel and unusual".
