There's a major catastrophe brewing, and it's going to hit every American hard. When it does, the Biden administration will likely cook up a lame excuse to distance themselves from this nightmare that's unfolding. But, the truth is that what's about to come down is 100 percent on Joe Biden. The bottom line is that you're about to see your utilities skyrocket. You might think they're high now, but thanks to Joe's shenanigans in Alaska, everything is about to go off the rails, literally and figuratively. The bombshell was revealed by a user on X named Wendy Patterson.

Here's what she said:

I want to make sure that you understand what is about to happen so you can prepare.

Biden canceled all of the Alaska drilling on Federal land. At the same time he stopped allowing liquid natural gas from being transported by train.

That leaves the only mode of transportation by trucking. About 2 months ago the largest trucking company went out of business:

Yellow, one of the nation's largest freight and trucking companies, announced it is shutting down, leading to one of the largest mass layoffs in recent history and potential shipping cost increases. The company is in bankruptcy just three years after getting a $700 million loan from taxpayers.

So that is going to create a massive supply chain issue of liquid natural gas which means your utility bills as well as the price of gas is going to skyrocket.

Biden used 300 million gallons of gas from our reserves to keep the gas prices artificially low. They can't do that anymore. They have set us up in every way to purposely make gas prices and utility prices skyrocket so fill all of your gas cans, buy propane ect NOW while you can still afford it.

Remember this when the bottom falls out and Biden regime tries to blame it on climate change. The sad part is, it didn't have to be this way.

Energy isn't the root of the world's problems; it's actually the solution. The further we drift from this reality, the more detrimental our situation becomes. By now, we should be swimming in an abundance of nuclear energy, but we're not. We really could have had it so good.

Adding fuel to the fire, Joe Biden has strained our relationships with Russia and Saudi Arabia, both of whom will likely retaliate by slashing production. It's mind-boggling to consider that just a few short years ago, under President Trump, the U.S. was on the cusp of energy independence. Now, the tables have completely turned. The harsh reality is that the Democrats have turned into an anti-energy, anti-humanity party, leaving the rest of us to deal with the consequences.

Every decision & policy made by Joe Robbingus Bidet's regime is intentionally designed to screw the U.S. citizenry.

Yes. And when "We The People" take back our country, all these grifters must deposit back every $$$ they stole, into the Treasury and back to the taxpayers.

Take back our country?? Have you not been paying attention the last few years? You actually think the Commiecrats are just going to relinquish power back to the people? They are in a live-or-die position at this point, IF we had real elections, Prez T would win in a landslide and they KNKW this and will do everything in their power to never allow another non-Uniparty POTUS again.

We are NOT voting our way out of this.

Can we please stop blaming the Demented Fraud for the destruction of America. He's barely responsible for letting his handlers know when his adult diapers need changed. This destruction of America is squarely on the criminally corrupt kenyan and his globalist puppet masters

Don't lie to yourself nor the rest of us. He may not be the "mastermind" but he Mastermind but he knows he is being used and knows what he is doing.. Through his office he is the power He is complicit. His past actions have compromised him but the Dems and their media have covered for him for decades. He is too proud to do the right thing and too arrogant to believe he will ever be blamed.

They are both 100%

wrong. The blame lies squarely with us, the American citizenry for letting it get this far. We never should have had to wait for Trump to wake us up. Our forefathers shot them for a 2% tea tax for crying out loud!! We deserve what's coming for not acting sooner. Now it will be twice as ugly before even a hint of civility returns.

The government does not control the media. you have it backwards. The oligarchs who control the banks and media are using both to control the politicians. They have been doing it for so long they now also control the people in the appointed positions of the bureaucracy.

We all need to stop being spectators and

engage starting in
our hometowns all
the way to
Washington, DC.
Make a difference!

Silence is how we got
here in the first place!
The politicians know
the people live in fear
and don't want to get involved. Makes them feel the same way, too!

Stay involved,
engage, let them
know what you
expect from them,
and which way the
wind is blowing or
they will falter to bribes and threats. If they do the right
thing, like Matt Gaetz,
let them know that,
too! We are all responsible for what happens to the country, and right
now its heading in
the wrong direction!
Wake up, Don't comply and Pressure
is key!

Complacency? I don't think so. Anybody who is still awake and has half a brain mostly keeps their mouth shut in order to minimize the blowback on themselves and their family. Having said this, the vast majority of people are brainwashed with little to no chance of reaching through discourse. Families are living paycheck to paycheck, and few people have the time or desire to delve into or decide to delve into the root of problems over which they have no control and no solution. There is no voting oneself out of a rigged situation.

Yes, you are so right. American citizens have turned into lazy, uneducated cowards. However, there are millions of citizens that are locked and loaded. Many of the sheep don't even know what the real reason the 2nd amendment was included in our constitution. It looks like the ones who understand the real reason will have to save the asses of all the lazy cucks from the hard tyranny coming our way.

But where are the Republicans you elected to the House and Senate?? As long as the People do not engage and continue on the path of Silent Spectators, nothing will change! If you don't call your reps and tell them which way the wind is blowing, they will remain incapacitated!

Yes, Americans have become brainwashed via the media and public education, and while it's easy to pile on and ridicule, think about the situation. Taking children beginning around age 6 and matriculating them through public school curriculum for 12 freaking years, is way too much indoctrination and influence for children to overcome. Very, very few make it out with a functioning, critical mindset. When the teachers don't have them, how does one expect this skill to be imparted to their students?
