We Are About to Witness One of the Most Pivotal Moments in Modern History

by Michael Snyder — October 27, 2023

in Commentary, Curated

- Drudge Report is dead. America First Patriots are getting aggregated, curated, and original content every day from Discern Report.

Editor's Commentary: I hesitated to publish this article when it first crossed my desk this morning because I believe there is one fundamental flaw. It does not take into account that the events taking place in the Middle East are being driven by the Globalist Elite Cabal that wants war. To say that Israel has no other choice is partially true; we all would want blood if our families were kidnapped, raped, and murdered. But considering the Israeli Deep State, in conjunction with the U.S. Deep State and their Multipolar World Order puppet masters, very likely allowed the initial Hamas attack to push the war efforts forward, it's not "antisemitic" to say some in the Israeli government helped manufacture these events.

I wholeheartedly support the Israeli people and the nation's right to defend itself. I unambiguously oppose the machinations of the Deep State both here and abroad. These are not mutually exclusive statements. But as someone who does not want a single U.S. troop or a single taxpayer dollar going to anyone in the Middle East, I vehemently support peaceful de-escalation as soon as Hamas is destroyed. Unfortunately, I fear Hamas is just one piece of the puzzle, more players will soon enter the fray, and the next world war is on the horizon. That's *why I am publishing Michael Snyder's

article below...*

*Dr. Joseph Mercola said, “Synthetic meat is the
epitome of ultraprocessed food, and it seems naïve to think it won’t have health effects similar to other ultraprocessed junk foods.”

Most people don't seem to realize that one of the most important moments that any of us have ever witnessed is about to happen. When the Israeli invasion of Gaza officially commences, nothing will ever be the same from that point forward. The entire Middle East will erupt in flames and the global economy will go completely haywire. But Israel doesn't have a choice in this matter. If our babies were killed, our women were raped and our grandmothers were kidnapped, we would be going to war with Hamas too. Unfortunately, much of the Islamic world is uniting behind Hamas, and so Israel could soon find itself literally fighting a war of national survival.

I know that Israel does not want to fight a multi-front war against multiple Islamic enemies. But once again, after what Hamas just did to Israeli women and children, there is no choice.

Hamas must be destroyed, and Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu has announced that the timing of the ground invasion has been decided...

“We are preparing for a ground incursion,” he said in a televised address to the nation. “I won’t specify when, how, how many. I also won’t detail the range of considerations, most of which the public is not aware of. And that’s the way it is supposed to be. This is the way, so that we protect our soldiers’ lives.”

However, Netanyahu said the war cabinet and chief of staff had reached a decision on the timing that was unanimous.

He added that Defense Minister Yoav Gallant, National Unity Government partner Minister Benny Gantz, the security cabinet, the chief of staff and heads of the security organizations were “working around the clock” to achieve the main war aims of “eliminating Hamas by destroying its military and governance capabilities and to do everything possible to get our hostages back.”

Of course it is entirely possible that whatever date they have set could be pushed back again.

- The Truth About Freeze-Dried Beef

The Israelis really want to rescue the hostages if possible, and they desperately want to prevent Hezbollah from attacking from the north.

But without a doubt, an invasion is coming.

In fact, the IDF just moved troops and tanks into northern Gaza temporarily in a raid that was designed to “prepare the battlefield” for the coming invasion...

Israeli troops and tanks briefly raided northern Gaza overnight, the military said Thursday, engaging with Hamas fighters and targeting anti-tank weapons in order to “prepare the battlefield” before an expected ground invasion.

The third Israeli raid since the war began came after more than two weeks of devastating airstrikes that have left thousands dead, and more than 1 million displaced from their homes, in the small, densely-populated territory.

It is being reported that these forces went about a kilometer deep into Gaza territory, and there were no casualties.

Don't fall for the "free" silver gimmicks. Buy physical precious metals from an America First patriot who works with bullion, not "special" or "rare" coins. Specializing in Cash Purchases and Rollover IRAs

So the raid was a success. The following is what the IDF had to say about the raid on Twitter...

In preparation for the next stages of combat, the IDF operated in northern Gaza.

IDF tanks & infantry struck numerous terrorist cells, infrastructure and anti-tank missile launch posts.

The soldiers have since exited the area and returned to Israeli territory.

Sadly, the civilians that remain in northern Gaza appear to be trapped there.

According to one account, Hamas is literally shooting at those that attempt to evacuate south on the main road...

The report explains, "In the call, the IDF officer tells Muhammad that to ‘ensure your personal safety, I’m asking you to urgently go towards Khan Younis’ in the south.”

The Gazan says, “All roads are blocked.”

“When asked if Hamas is blocking the roads, he answers in the affirmative, saying that Hamas was preventing passage south through Salah al-Din Road, the main north-south highway running through the Gaza Strip,” the report says.

And, the Gazan adds, “They are shooting at people.”

Hamas is so evil.

They even hate their own people and want to use them as human shields.

And now more evidence has emerged that appears to directly link the Iranians with the Hamas attacks on October 7th.

The following comes from the Wall Street Journal...

In the weeks leading up to Hamas's Oct. 7 attacks on Israel, hundreds of the Palestinian Islamist militant group's fighters received specialized combat training in Iran, according to people familiar with intelligence related to the assault.

Roughly 500 militants from Hamas and an allied group, Palestinian Islamic Jihad, participated in the exercises in September, which were led by officers of the Quds Force, the foreign-operations arm of Iran's Islamic Revolutionary Guard Corps, the people said.

Senior Palestinian officials and Iranian Brig. Gen. Esmail Qaani, the head of Quds Force, also attended, they said.

If this is true, the Iranians need to be held accountable.

Groups that are “affiliated with Iran” have also attacked U.S. troops in Iraq and Syria “more than a dozen times” during the past couple of weeks...

U.S. forces based in Iraq and Syria have been attacked more than a dozen times by Iranian proxies in the Middle East within the last two weeks, according to the Department of Defense.

Between Oct. 17 and Oct. 26, U.S. and coalition forces have been attacked at least a dozen times in Iraq, while troops in Syria have been attacked four times in that period via a mix of one-way attack drones and rockets, Pentagon spokesman Brig. Gen. Patrick Ryder said Thursday. He declined to name the group or groups responsible for the attacks specifically but said they are “affiliated with Iran.”

The Iranians are either really stupid, or they are trying to spark an apocalyptic war. Once the IDF starts storming Gaza, events are going to start moving very rapidly.

And the Biden administration continues to prepare for a worst case scenario. Earlier today we learned that the Pentagon will be sending 900 more U.S. soldiers to the region...

*In the Pentagon's latest move to bolster US defenses in the Middle East against the 'Iran threat' – given the increased instances of Tehran proxies attacking US troop installations in Iraq and Syria over the last week – some 900 more Americans soldiers will be dispatched to the region.

A CBS correspondent has cited Pentagon Press Secretary, Gen. Patrick Ryder, who says 900 US troops have deployed or in process of deploying to bolster missile defense in CENTCOM's mideast region of operations. They are expected to man Patriot, THAAD and Avenger missile systems. Earlier this week US defense officials said these extra missile batteries are being deployed to the theatre ahead of an expected Israeli ground offensive in Gaza.

*The CBS reporter noted “This comes as Iranian-backed groups continue to attack US military in Iraq and Syria.” Fears are growing that a major IDF push into the Gaza Strip would unleash broader retaliation strikes on US bases in the region.

There are some that believe that Hezbollah and Iran are bluffing and that a wider war will not erupt once the Israelis invade Gaza.

how Genesis Precious Metals can help you secure your wealth with a proper self-directed IRA backed by physical precious metals.

I wish that I could believe that. Sadly, there is no turning back now.

The IDF really is going to conduct a massive ground operation in Gaza. Then Hezbollah and other parties will start joining the conflict.

We really are on the verge of the unthinkable, and so I would encourage you to prepare accordingly.

Iran is behind all of this. All their oil-producing infrastructure should be promptly destroyed.

Sure, but that would be ill-timed at the moment. Cutting them off with sanctions was working somewhat well for 35 years (weakened only by backstabbing “allies” and criminally treasonous corporations); but for the last 15 years, the grotesque opposite has occurred. Oba-Mao even flew them a pallet with $1 billion in nonsequential, circulated bills! {Seriously, who carries that much in circulated currency? The CIA...and now Iran!} So now, we have to go back to 1944-45 Island Hopping strategy. Take out Hamas. Take out Hezbollah. Take out the Houthis (well, maybe let them continue to harass the Saudis a bit longer). Blow up Assad's houses (worked well against Gaddafi). All would seriously diminish the Iran threat, but none likely would escalate to WW3. Attacking Iran directly, however, would provoke Russia, Turkey, and maybe even China into a war posture at the very least. Oh, and loony North Korea is a big big pal of Iran, too. Nope, it is better strategically, and for the sake of the world, to put Iran methodically and carefully back into its Pandora-like box.

I don't think this is the very last of the Last Days (quite just yet) – in fact, I think all parties involved are following Revelation as though it were a guide book. We are indeed dangerously close to all Hell breaking loose – but it bears reflection that many of us engaged in this information war over the last 20+ years forced the NWO/WEF elites to lunge for their prize (total technocratic enslavement and murder of humanity). The enemy is still dangerous, but they are pulling these strings at the wrong time (thanks to fellow patriots out there). The enemy now has to serve all of this tyranny, subversion, and even war in buckets instead of drips. The people are aware of their scam and this too, shall pass. How long before it's over and what cost in lives remains to be seen. I agree, there's no backing down for the IDF over this atrocity. There likely ARE peaceful people in the Gaza Strip – however, every single one of them that was out in the streets while Hamas was throwing bodies in the backs of their trucks – engaging and encouraging the evil we all just witnessed on 10/7 are not innocent. They deserve the same fate as Hamas.

Next time, the Palestinians of Gaza should vote for a government that wants to live peacefully with Israel. If not, they are one and the same with Hamas.

What you are witnessing in the middle east is the preparation for the final battle. The conflict between Isarel and Hamas which will eventually widen to include the Muslim nations surrounding Israel. However, this is not that finial battle. This conflict will result in the annelation of those armies and Israel taking over full control of the Temple mount. It is amazing that their battle cry includes the Al-Aqsa Mosque. The Dome of the Rock will be razed for the Third Temple. The other battle we are witnessing is the reemergence of Donald Trump who is the Revelation 12 child. Biden had to be placed into power for this current conflict to happen. Biden's name has a meaning of Judgement. Donald Trump will destroy the Deep State and its allies. He will also be instrumental in the construction of the Temple. The final battle is between Christ and the Antichrist. The angel (Nepheline) who is guarding the way of life will be removed and the knowledge of both ways of life will be reviled by one like Elijah.

Admittedly, it seems inconceivable that Israeli intelligence had no forewarning of Hamas's attack. Admittedly, the "Deep State" one world nut jobs are involved with just about every nasty thing going on in the world today. I think it is foolish to pin blame until the truth reveals itself, which will eventually happen. Bear in mind that Jewish-Arab conflicts predate the birth of Christ, and that battles between "Palestinians" and Israelis have been almost constant since the birth of modern Israel. There is no reason to think that beyond the stated goal of eliminating Hamas, Israel has no wish to engage in further expanded war. Extending the conflict or not will depend on what Iran's puppet, Hezbollah does. If the Islamic terrorists to the north insist, Israel will engage them (and likely destroy them). If Iran proceeds to engage (more than it already has), Israel will deal with that. Should it get to that point, US military may want throw themselves in. Hopefully, that will not happen. Israel may, if things get too dicey, decide to drop a nuke or several on Iran. That would probably put an end to war in the Mid-East for quite some time.

The prophecy leading up to Armageddon hasn't happened, so “there will be wars, and rumors of war” fits this one. Russia is busy, China isn’t ready yet, and North Korea is just a minor want-a-be. Iran is stupid enough to start something, but risks losing everything they’ve gained from Obama and his globalist masters. More likely, Israel will do what they want to Hamas and after a couple of years of clean up, it all starts over.

sir,

“prepare accordingly,” yes — but for what? read carefully ALL old testament prophecies. what ‘preparedness’ were God’s people repeatedly warned to act upon, and act upon immediately — given the imminence and inescapable reality of horrific disaster. the answer is also echoed THROUGHOUT the new testament. one example from each covenant should suffice: “TURN to Him, against whom you have deeply rebelled” (Isaiah 31:6); new testament:

“as many as I love, I rebuke and chasten, be zealous therefore and REPENT” (Revelation 3:19)
Did jews heed the cry? For the most part, no. and christians, do they see themselves as Laodiceans, self-deceived, presuming upon grace for any eventuality? another majority ‘no.’ so how ‘bout you? yes, a very big, unstoppable storm is coming. get prepared, friend, while you have this narrow window of chance.
