The Case

Barry Young, 56, made two court appearances. At a procedural hearing in the morning, he was accused of leaking data. New Zealand Herald reported.

There are five key takeaways from the case:

1. They don't deny the 'leaker' is (
2. They insist — often and loudly — that the data came from an Oracle database administrator.
3. They do NOT claim that Young's data is illegitimate. They assume the Young Data is legit.
4. Most tellingly, they allege Young was “misinformed” not even a little. The c

Kirsch added, “This data destroys the ‘safe people from analyzing it.”

Kirsch later revealed, “Over the last merit. It was crystal clear that his in (manslaughter) being perpetrated by the N want you to do that.”

Over the last month, I've had many talks without merit. It was crystal clear that his documents was to expose a crime (negligence) perpetrated by the NZ Ministry of Health that they don't want you to do that.
