

Louisiana's Senate just UNANIMOUSLY passed a bill that denies that any communication from the WHO, UN AND WEF may be used as a basis for action within the state!!!

Actually very similar to my model state resolution. WHAT a message this sends!

The bipartisan support imho can only mean that the Dems were convinced the electorate would roast them if they voted no. Which means the electorate is speaking up!

This will go to the Louisiana House then Governor Jeff Landry, but it should sail through both very quickly.

Will Louisiana be the first domino to fall? The other red states won't be far behind. Cause for major celebration!
